PRESS RELEASE

EURO AREA MFI INTEREST RATE STATISTICS: JULY 2013

In July 2013 the euro area composite cost-of-borrowing indicator for non-financial corporations increased whereas the composite rate for deposits remained broadly unchanged. In the same month, the euro area composite cost-of-borrowing indicator and the composite rate for deposits from households remained broadly unchanged.

Most significant MFI interest rates on new business loans to, and deposits from, non-financial corporations:

July 2013 saw an increase in the cost of new borrowing by non-financial corporations both for small loans and for loans of over €1 million. For example, the interest rate on new loans over €1 million with a floating rate and an initial rate fixation period of up to three months increased by 8 basis points from the previous month to stand at 2.13%. This month-on-month increase was driven by the interest rate effect. The corresponding rate for new loans of the same size with an initial rate fixation period of over ten years increased by 5 basis points to stand at 3.17%. The month-on-month increase was driven by the weight effect, which accounted for 18 basis points of the change whereas the interest rate effect accounted for -12 basis points of the change. In the case of new loans up to €250,000 with a floating rate and an initial rate fixation period of up to three months, the average rate charged increased by 11 basis points to stand at 4.65%. The composite cost-of-borrowing indicator for new loans to non-financial corporations increased by 7 basis points to stand at 2.97%. As regards new deposit agreements, the interest rate on deposits from non-financial corporations with an agreed maturity of up to one year stayed more or less constant at 0.82% in July 2013 (having stood at 0.83% in June 2013).

* For this instrument category, the concept of new business is extended to the whole outstanding amounts and therefore it is not comparable with the business volumes of the other categories; households and non-financial corporations are merged and allocated to the household sector. Volume data are derived from the ECB's MFI balance sheet statistics.

Notes:

- The first paragraph of the press release on deposits is based on the arithmetic average of MFI interest rates, weighted by new business volumes. Additionally, as presented for the first time in this press release, the first paragraph refers to the composite cost-of-borrowing indicator, which is described in the article entitled "Assessing the retail bank interest rate pass-through in the euro area at times of financial fragmentation" in the August 2013 issue of the ECB's Monthly Bulletin (Box 1, pp. 76-79). The rest of the press release presents statistical information derived from a subset of the available MFI interest rate statistics. The full set of statistics can be downloaded from the "MFI interest rates" part of the "Money, banking and financial markets" section of the ECB's Statistical Data Warehouse (see <http://sdw.ecb.europa.eu>). More detailed information on MFI interest rate statistics, including the release calendar, is available from the "Bank interest rates" part of the "Monetary and financial statistics" section of the ECB's statistics website (see <http://www.ecb.europa.eu/stats>).
- In this press release, loans are categorised on the basis of their initial rate fixation period, i.e. the period of time at the start of the contract during which the interest rate will not change. "Floating rate" is defined as the interest rate that is subject to revisions on a continuous basis or at the discretion of the MFI.
- For MFI interest rate statistics, "new business" refers to any new agreement between a customer and an MFI, while "outstanding amounts" refers to the stock of all deposits and all loans at a specific moment in time.
- In this press release "up to" means "up to and including".
- Interest rates on new business are weighted on the basis of the size of the individual agreements. This is done both by the reporting agents and when computing the national and euro area averages. Thus, in addition to changes in actual interest rates, changes in average euro area interest rates for new business also reflect changes in the weights of individual countries' new business for the instrument categories concerned. The "interest rate effect" and the "weight effect" presented in this press release are derived from the Bennet index, which allows month-on-month developments in euro area aggregate rates resulting from changes in individual country rates (the "interest rate effect") to be disentangled from those caused by changes in the weights of individual euro area countries' contribution (the "weight effect").
- In addition to monthly euro area MFI interest rate statistics for July 2013, this press release incorporates minor revisions to data for previous periods. Unless otherwise indicated, these euro area statistics cover the EU Member States that had adopted the euro at the time to which the data relate. Thus, these statistics include Greece as of January 2001, Slovenia as of January 2007, Cyprus and Malta as of January 2008, Slovakia as of January 2009 and Estonia as of January 2011.
